

CALL TO ACTION: HOW TO RESPOND TO THE NEWLY PROPOSED TA

October 8, 2019

We need to do our best to stop the US Trade Department proposed 25% tariffs on wine imports from France, Spain, and Germany. This is not the answer to EU aircraft subsidies. This new policy is punitive towards US wine importers, retailers, restaurants and ultimately the American wine drinker. Chambers & Chambers encourages you to reach out to your senators to help stop these tariffs. Below you will find an article explaining some effects that may happen from the proposed tariffs by The Washington Post as well as where to send letters to your California senators.

Trump's latest tariffs could mean higher food and drink prices - and not just for French Wine
