

OPPOSE TARIFFS ON IMPORTED WINE FROM THE E.U.

December 24, 2019

Chambers & Chambers proudly represents many producers from all throughout Europe and has been doing so since 1973. With the risk of tariffs rising to 100%, the already stifling current issue at hand of tariffs would now be affecting more regions as well as sparkling wines. The wine industry has no business in these trade wars, and with the introduction of more devastating tariffs, international wines are being forced out of a market that does not wish to see them go.
